PLAY BRISKERAlexander Cup Tennis Tournament Provokes Skillful and Keen Playing.The second day of the tennis tournament for the Alexander cup saw much brisker playing on the Pacific Tennis Club's courts than was the case on the opening day.The ball was set rolling with a match between S. G. Wilder and W. H. Babbitt, which was won by the latter after two well contested games, the score being 7-5, 6-1. Wilder gave out in the second set.C. H. Cooke defeated P. M. Lansdale, 6-2, 6-2. Cooke's careful play gained the victory.A. T. Brock defeated W. H. Coney, 6-4, 7-5. Brock won only on account of the lack of form of the newspaper man, who has not skipped over a tennis court for a twelvemonth.J. Waterhouse accounted for George Waterhouse, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4. The Wa-terhouses played a brisk, driving game and were very evenly matched.W. Roth won from I. Dillingham, 6-4, 6-4, after one of the most interesting matches of the day. Dillingham put up a brilliant though rather erratic game. Roth playing a steady placing game.W. F. Dillingham conquered J. T. Irvine after a couple of sets, replete with brilliant plays, the score being 6-1, 6-1.E. R. Adams defeated A. Lewis, 9-7, 14-12, after a closely contested match, Adams' careful driving and placing winning.J. P. Cooke beat C. H. W. Norton, 6-0, 6-0. Norton played a fine lady's game, but succumbed to Cooke's terrific driving.The tournament will be continued at 4 p. m. today, when J. P. Cooke will play D. H. Hitchcock and J. Waterhouse, F. C. Atherton. At 5 p. m. W.
F. Dillingham will oppose E. R.
Adams.WILL HAVE AN HONORARY SEATChapter of St. Andrew's Cathedral Extends Invitation to Bishop Willis.At a recent meeting of the Chapter of St. Andrew's Cathedral, held in the Chapter House, the Right Rev. W. F.
Nichols, D. D., Bishop of California, and Bishop in charge of the Missionary District of Honolulu, presided at deliberations at which two important motions were presented and carried. The first was moved by the Rev. Canon Macintosh and seconded by the Rev.
Canon Ault, that the chapter extend to Bishop Willis an invitation to attend any meetings of the chapter that may be agreeable to him, as an honorary member. The other was moved by Rev. Canon Ault, seconded by the Rev.
Canon Macintosh, that the Bishop, Dean and Chapter cordially invite Bishop Willis to be present at any of the services of St. Andrew's cathedral that it may be in his power to attend, and assign to him an honorary seat at the side of the throne of the See.SOCIETY'S GREETING TO THE PRINCESS

In the Louis XV parlor, opposite the drawing room, the decorations were most attractive. The alcove was filled with ferns and palms, a statue and pedestal being wound with carnation leaves. The window curtains were decorated with bouquets of carnations and ferns. The gentlemen occupied the upstairs portion, the balcony over the porte cochere being used as a smoking lanai. It was nearly midnight before the dancing really began, and it lasted till early morning.NEW YORK'S MEAT BILL.*High Prices Rule in the Metropolitan Market.NEW YORK, March 29.—The following figures will show how retail prices of meat have risen since January:Prices in January—Mutton chops, 18 cents; price at present, 24 cents. Shoulder of lamb in January, 7 cents; present price, 9 cents. Leg of lamb in January, 12½ cents; present price 15 cents. Hind quarter of mutton in January, 14 cents; present price, 16 cents.
Sirloin steak in January, 18 cents; now 20 cents.Fresh meat is now regarded by many people as a luxury and hundreds of the smaller dealers in greater New York, Jersey City and Hoboken are on the verge of shutting down. The dealers do not expect early relief. They declare the packing companies which form the "beef trust" have raised the prices and that a further 15 per cent increase has been ordered. Their figures show that mutton chops have risen in the last few weeks from 18 cents to 24 cents, while prices of many other meats have jumped almost as greatly.
If a meat shop is opened on an independent basis the trust opens an opposition shop near by, undersells and forces the independent man out of business.A Successful Play."The Girl I Left Behind Me" closed last night to a packed house. The production was one of the best ever seen here. The Elletts can always be depend upon to give good, clean, enjoyable performances. Tonight the company will present a grand scenic production of the successful comedy drama entitled "The World." The piece is overflowing with comedy and exciting climaxes. One of the most realistic scenes ever put on any stage is the sensational raft scene, with its thrilling rescue in mid-ocean. Specialties will be given by Baby Lillian, Little Lovie and Ada Lucas. There will also be a grand family matinee on Saturday afternoon for the benefit of those who are unable to get out in the evenings. Prices to matinee have been placed at 15c and 25c.LACROSSE IS CATCHING ONPractices Well Attended and the Material for Three Teams in Sight.A practice game at lacrosse took place on the Makiki ground last Tuesday evening, about a dozen men participating. Although the game has only lately attracted popular notice in Honolulu, many new players have commenced to practice, among whom are several from the Association football teams. Judging from the ease with which some of the new players picked up the ball, and the vigor that was introduced into the practice, one would have thought they had played lacrosse for months.It is to be hoped that three or four teams will be organized. Such men as I. Anderson, McGill, Thompson, Hiltz, Brett, and a few others, would form very good material for one team.
Chamberlain, Huistead, Connan, Guild and Glass would form the backbone of another team. Irving, Munro, Beardmore, and others who play the game might arrange a third team.The players who have already taken up the national game of Canada are quite enthusiastic, and all that seems lacking is the introduction of new men.
Sportsmen generally would like to see most of the players from the Association football teams taking hold of lacrosse, and so providing Honolulu with another good sport until the time arrives for the return of the "Soccer" season.The Inter-State Commerce Commission will continue the fight on the railroads, in an effort to prevent rate discrimination.BY AUTHORITY.
